LATE BREAKING DX NEWS

Gary Dixon, K4MQG, reports the following goodies:

- 1) Beginning on February 2, for three days, BY4WNG will operate BY1PK with a kilowatt on 80 meters, looking for east coast QSOs.
- 2) During February, look for BT0LS and BT0ZML, who will be operating in Zone 23 from the highest Mt. in China.
- 3) ZS6XD has made an application to go to Marion Island by supply boat in April.

PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

Ken Boyd, WA4UNZ, our newly-elected CDXA President, would like all CDXA members to focus on the following items in early 1988:

- 1) Lets all make more use of our two DX repeaters and call out as much DX information as possible. Remember, many members (and potential members) need countries that are not that rare, so don't ignore the more common DX....
- 2) Membership renewal time is here. As you take time to send your $15.00 to Bill Jennings (W4UNP), please give a thought to recruiting some new members into the CDXA. You may have some Amateur buddies who are interested in DX, but don't know of our club.
- 3) If there are activities you would like our club to undertake, please let the officers know. None of us are mind readers, so make your wishes known.
- 4) Don't forget the Wednesday night DX net, and all members are encouraged to bring their own DX news - after Roger reads the bulletins, he always stands by for other info - share yours with us.

READER FORUM

In response to my impassioned plea for contributions to this newsletter, Don Daso, WABMAZ, submitted these items - thanks, Don:

Hey Kids, it's Dayton Hamvention time once again - time for all good hams to think of heading to Ohio. I remember my first trip back in 1964. Seriously, this is Ham Radios largest gathering, and there is literally "something for everyone". WABMAZ and N4ZC are going - anyone else interested?

While on the subject of hamfests, its time to consider doing something to increase growth and interest in the CDXA. How about the idea of a simple slide show, something that might run continuously at the CDXA booth, of members QTHs. Nothing fancy, but something to think about. Everybody try to get some shots of your station together, OK? We have the time!

Thanks to one and all from MAZ for those 10-meter contacts. 1922 QSOs and 166 multipliers in 29 hours of operation. Propagation was wild - for several hours the little 3 element Yagi at 30 feet aimed at South America was our run antenna for back and side-scatter QSOs. A special award to the household of K4MQG, who contributed 28 points, all by themselves!

CHINA NOTES by K2SD

I finally received my first BY QSL card this week (yes, I know it's no big deal nowadays) and included was the following info - I suspect some other CDXA members have received similar sheets, but thought I would share it anyway. It is from BY4SZ in Suzhow, China, and is addressed to "Respected Radio Amateurs":

"For the sake of developing friendly relation with foreign radio amateurs and promoting the radio technical exchange. Chinese Radio Sports

Association, Suzhou Branch would cordially welcome foreign radio amateurs to visit China, make a tour, give lectures and attend BY4SZ station activities. Permission to use "BT" call sign will be given to those who apply for it. Suzhou is a famous city of China. It has a long cultural history of 2500 years. It is situated in the economic developing along the coast of China. Major attractions of it is that many Chinese ancient gardens, scenic spots and historical sites can be found all over the city. Its elegant embroidery, silks and satins, consummate woodcut, jade carving are famous in the world. Suzhou cuisine is another treat of visitors. Therefore a Chinese saying that "up above there is heaven, down below, Suzhou and Hangzhou" compares Suzhou to paradise. Suzhou's radio amateurs look forward to meeting their friends on the air. We would warmly receive the visitors from all over the world, and make every effort to help them to economize travelling expenses and to make such arrangements as transportation, service, hotel accommodations, and visa preparation. For details, please contact the International Tour Office of Chinese Radio Sports Association, Suzhou Branch. (PO Box 51, Suzhou, China)."

Things sure have changed since China got back into the Radio (and real) world.....If anybody wants to take a tour to BY land, this looks like an interesting place to stop!
